REPORTS.

On Education.

Your committee beg leave to make the following report and recommendations:

Indiana Asbury University.

The University during the present year will catalogue somewhat over five hundred students. The Trustees have added to the board of instruction Dr. J. P. D. John, Professor of Applied Mathematics; Miss Alma Holman, Professor of Modern Languages, and Dr. S. L. Bowman, Professor of Theology. These instructors are doing most effective work in their respective chairs.

Dr. Manners, of New Richmond, has recently given to the University the sum of $15,000. For the Library Endowment has been collected about $1,100. The collection for that purpose from the present session of the Conference is $161.25.

Concerning the enlargement of the University we recommend the following:

WHEREAS, The Hon. W. C. DePauw has offered to the Trustees of Indiana Asbury University a donation so large as to place that institution in the front rank of educational Institutions in the Mississippi Valley; and

WHEREAS, This donation is contingent upon the raising of $150,000 before the first day of August, 1883,

Resolved, That every Methodist owes it to the Church and to the cause of Christian education to use all possible endeavors to secure said sum of money by the date specified.

Resolved, That a committee of ten preachers be appointed whose duty it shall be to co-operate with the Trustees of Indiana Asbury University, or with committees appointed by them, in securing money for the purpose above named.

Resolved, That each pastor be requested to preach on the subject of education, and to explain the plans proposed by Mr. DePauw, and use all his influence to accomplish the end in view.

Resolved, That on the 31st day of December such special efforts as above named shall be discontinued, and the field left open for the Centennial Educational Committee.

We recommend the election of the following Trustees and Visitors:

Trustees: Bishop Thomas Bowman, Mr. C. C. Binkley.

Visitors: J. W. Welch, H. J. Norris.

Fort Wayne College.

Your committee respectfully report that the Fort Wayne College has enjoyed another year of gratifying prosperity. The instruction is thorough, and the Institution enjoys in an increasing degree the favor of the public. During the past winter a gracious revival of religion, commencing in the Wayne Street Church, prevailed in the College. Upwards of forty students were converted and added to the Church.

The Institution is commended to the patronage of the Church.

We recommend as Visitors to Fort Wayne: W. H. Daniel and O. S. Harrison.

We recommend that R. D. Robinson, John M. Miller, F. T. Simpson, G. W. Brackenridge, and C. S. Smith, be elected Trustees to serve for three years from date.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

From the report of the Trustees and Faculty your committee learns with pleasure of the increasing prosperity of this institution. The rapid development of our Western States and Territories creates a constant demand for young men well educated and well grounded in the doctrines of the Bible and in the polity of our Church. We earnestly advise that, so far as may be possible, young men who contemplate devoting themselves to the Christian ministry should add to the discipline acquired in the literary institutions of the Church the training of our theological seminaries. We recommend Garrett Biblical Institute to the attention and cordial support of our people.

We recommend the appointment of A. E. Mahin and E. F. Hasty as Visitors.

Cincinnati Wesleyan College.

We rejoice to learn that this institution has been relieved from embarrassment under the efficient management of Rev. W. K. Brown, D. D., President. We commend the College to parents desiring to send their daughters to college.

Centennial Celebration.

Whereas, The year 1884 is the 100th year of the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church; and

Whereas, The last General Conference recommended that the Annual Conferences make provision for a fitting celebration of the organization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in America by largely increased contributions to all benevolent enterprises of the Church;

Resolved, That the erection of new and suitable buildings for the use of the Fort Wayne College be the object to which our efforts shall be principally directed.

Resolved, That a committee consisting of five preachers and three laymen be appointed to be known as the Centennial Educational Committee, whose duty it shall be to devise measures to secure funds for the purpose above stated. This committee shall meet on call of the chairman on or about the 22d of June, at Fort Wayne, and take preliminary steps for an active and thorough canvass of the Conference territory, and shall cause such canvass to be commenced on or immediately after December 31st, 1883.

Children's Day.

We heartily recommend the general observance of children's day in all of our charges.

W. F. YOCUM, Secretary. J. E. EARP, Chairman.

On Bible Cause.

Your committee on the Bible Cause submit the following report:

The amount collected for the Bible Cause:

This year	$343 99
Last year	193 21
Increase	$150 78

Realizing the importance of the Bible Cause, the necessity of the Bible being found in every household, the inculcation of its truth in Christian experience, the foundation of all civil and religious liberties; therefore

Resolved, That we will preach on this subject once during the Conference year, and will take a collection for this cause, or co-operate with any properly authorized agent who may canvass for this purpose within the bounds of our charges.

R. F. BREWINGTON,
A. CONE,
W. M. VAN SLYKE,
Committee.

On Temperance.

WHEREAS, We have been greatly disappointed by the action of the Legislature in refusing to submit the Prohibition Amendment to a direct vote of the people of the State of Indiana; therefore

Resolved, That we most emphatically declare that we are opposed to the license system, and will urge and support nothing less than prohibition.

Resolved, That we are in favor of so amending the Constitution of the State of Indiana that it shall forever prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage.

Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of Dr. R. D. Spellman as Temperance Evangelist of the North Indiana Conference.

J. LEONARD,
A. W. LAMPORT,
A. CONE,
Committee.

On Sunday Schools.

We, your committee on Sunday Schools, make the following report:

We regard the Sunday School work to be one of the most important departments of Church work; one of the most fruitful fields of increase which should engage the attention of all Church workers.

We recommend the literature of our Church and call the attention of the pastors and officers of schools to the valuable helps in normal work prepared by the Sunday School Union.

The pastors should, whenever practicable, meet the teachers and officers in teachers' meetings for practical drill in their work of teaching and managing their schools.

Our Sunday Schools should all be organized into missionary societies.

We will heartily work in harmony with the Sunday School Union of our Church; 1st. In increasing the collections; 2d. In furnishing books to needy schools.

As we are informed that they are unable to meet all the wants in this direction, we recommend that the pastors procure all the second-hand books suitable to Sunday Schools and Churches, and forward them to Rev. A. H. Gillett, in care of Walden & Stowe.

We recommend that our Conference be organized into a Sunday School Society, auxilliary to the Sunday School Union of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and that the following rules be hereby adopted for the control of the Society:

1. The officers of the Society shall consist of a President, one Vice-President for each Presiding Elder's District, a Secretary and Treasurer.
2. The officers shall be nominated by the Conference Committee on Sunday Schools, and elected by the Conference.
3. The Vice-Presidents shall be appointed by the Presiding Elders, immediately on the adjournment of the Conference, and their names furnished the Conference Secretary for publication in the Minutes.
4. The Anniversary of the Society shall be held at such time during the Conference session as may be fixed on by the President and Secretary in connection with the Committee on Public Worship.
5. The District Vice-Presidents, in connection with the Presiding Elder, shall arrange for a District Institute, under the direction of the Presiding Elder, at least once a year.
6. It shall be the duty of the District Vice-Presidents to correspond with the Agent of the Sunday School Union concerning the condition of the work in their Districts, and do all they can to aid him in advancing the interests of Sunday School work within the bounds of their Districts.

We nominate the following officers of the Society above provided for:

President.—J. E. Ervin.

Vice-Presidents.—Ft. Wayne District, W. H. Daniel; Goshen District, C. E. Bacon; Warsaw District, I. J. Smith; Kokomo District, A. S. Wooten Muncie District, H. N. Herrick; Richmond District, J. F. Rhoades.

On Tract Cause.

Your committee on the Tract Cause would respectfully report as follows:

There have come into the hands of the treasurer of the committee, in cash and vouchers, $148.07, being an increase of $9.32 over last year. As this cause has been very efficient in the circulation of a pure literature, therefore

Resolved, That we give every charge an opportunity of contributing to its support.

Respectfully submitted,

On Home Missions.

Your committee appointed to consider the subject of Home Missions beg leave to submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in our judgment some step should be taken to relieve some of our weaker charges, and to help our brethren assigned to those charges to a comfortable support, and therefore recommend the organization of a Conference Home Missionary Society.

Resolved, That the Conference proceed at once to effect such an organization, and we submit the following constitution for the consideration of the Conference.

CONSTITUTION OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS AND SUSTENTATION.

Name.

This Board shall be called the Board of Home Missions and Sustentation of the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Object.

Its object shall be to aid in supporting preachers in their active work on weak charges within the bounds of the said North Indiana Conference.

Members.

The Board shall consist of the Presiding Elders of the Conference—one pastor and two laymen from each Presiding Elder's district. The pastor shall be chosen by the pastors of the district in which he may be. The laymen shall be chosen by the District Stewards, at their first meeting after the session of the Annual Conference, to serve for the term of two years. At the first election, one of the members thus elected shall serve for the term of one year.

Meetings.

The Board shall hold two meetings in the year; one on the ..... Tuesday of May, and one on the ..... Tuesday of February. Other meetings may be held at the call of the officers as may be necessary.

Powers.

The Board shall have authority to elect such officers as shall seem needful; provided no officer shall receive pecuniary remuneration for any service rendered; to enact such by-laws as shall not militate against this constitution; to receive moneys for the purpose of this Board from collection in churches, personal contributions, or from any other source; to distribute the same for the purpose named in this constitution, according to the judgment of the Board, and under such conditions as they shall approve; provided, no appropriation of money shall be made to apply to any time previous, or subsequent to the then current Conference year. And no appropriation shall be made to any church after the first year, which did not, in the year previous, systematically raise by some method, approved by this Board, at least an average of $..... per member for the support of the pastor, beside taking all the regular Conference collections, including one for this Board.

Duties.

It shall be the duty of the Board to encourage all applying churches in systematic business habits; to make full inquiry into the past and present circumstances and future prospects of such churches; to make all needed appeals to the public, and take such other measures to raise funds as in its judgment seems best; to manage and distribute all funds received for the purpose named; to advise in regard to the grouping of adjacent charges in circuits, and to make full report of all its doings to the North Indiana Annual Conference.

Collections.

The collections ordered by the Annual Conference for this fund shall be taken in all the charges not later than the ..... Sunday in ....., and the amounts thus collected paid promptly to the Treasurer of the Board.

Limitation.

This Board shall not have power to change, alter or amend this Constitution, except by two-thirds of all the members present and voting, and the concurrence of the Annual Conference.

Resolved, That the following preamble and resolutions, adopted by a sister Conference, be adopted by us, to show our approval of and sympathy with this noble work, known as the "Woman's Home Missionary Society:"

The plan of this Society is to send into the neglected and destitute regions of our own land Christian women to teach in schools where such can be collected, and also to give religious instruction by going into the homes of the needy.

We find that the movers of this Society are pursuing their work zealously, and as rapidly as possible.

We also find that they are acting in harmony with the recommendation of the General Conference, and are receiving the sympathy of the Bishops and officers of the Missionary Society; therefore,

Resolved, That we heartily indorse the organization of the Woman's Missionary Society as auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Resolved, That we recognize in the destitution of our frontier settlements, in the influx of foreign immigration, in the duties we owe to the aborigines, in the abominations of Mormonism, and in the ignorance of the Southern freedwoman, an ample field and the exceeding necessity for this branch of benevolent enterprise.

Resolved, That we use our influence and opportunities as pastors to sanction and advance the interests of this cause.

J. GREER, Secretary.

W. S. Birch,
A. Greenman,

Basis for Claimants.

Your committee on Basis for Claimants would submit the following as their report:

We recommend the adoption of the Basis as presented and printed in last year's Conference Minutes, with the following emendations:

In the Third Class, where the word ten occurs insert nine; in the Fourth Class, where the word fourteen occurs insert twelve; also, on the 47th page, beginning at the end of the fifteenth line from the bottom, add: Nevertheless, should there be a special case apparent to the Stewards of the Conference and Disbursing Committee, in the First or Second Classes, who should be continued on the list of beneficiaries, they shall recommend to the Conference their continuance, and by a three-fourth majority of the Conference present and voting on said recommendation, they may be continued claimants as long as recommended and approved as above by the Conference.

W. S. BIRCH,
E. HOLSTOCK,
A. E. MAHIN,
Committee.

[The report of last year is reprinted below, as amended.—SECRETARY.]

1. The whole subject is clearly within the jurisdiction of the Annual Conferences. They may proceed to distribute their funds in such a ratio as their own judgment may approve.

2. These funds should be sacredly guarded, and no use made of them that will not commend itself to the heart of the Church at large.

3. The length of effective service in the traveling ministry, as a basis of dividends, seems eminently just and reasonable. The Christian ministry is altogether unlike the military service of the country, in that it is unattended with any unusual peril of life or limb. No class of men are longer-lived than ministers of the gospel. The principal claim for a pension from, the Church, in case of disability, is founded on the fact of inadequate support while in the effective ranks. A minister who has rendered the Church but a few years' service has not brought it under moral obligation to support him, his wife and children for a long term of years after his disability or death. It needs to be more distinctly ordered and explained to the Church—the laity—that our collections for Conference claimants, the proceeds of invested funds, and the dividends from the Book Concern will be appropriated to claimants in proportion to the strength of their respective claims, as shown by the amount of labor they have rendered. When this shall become the law, and be fully understood by our people, their contributions will be more liberal than ever.

4. As regards dividends to persons who have resources of their own, we entertain the conviction that a liberal rule should be followed, especially with the third and fourth classes, named below. A preacher who through many years spends the whole of his salary and lays up nothing, should not have an advantage over his brother who by rigid economy has managed to save a little from year to year, and thus provided in part against a "rainy day." Preachers who have ample resources for a comfortable support, have no very strong claim upon the Conference, and are not likely to ask or receive any part of its funds. Except in these latter cases, we recommend that no rigid scrutiny be exercised to know just to a dollar how much a brother should receive to make him comfortable for the remainder of his life. The form of application to be made out by claimants, adopted by this Conference some years ago, will be a sufficient safeguard in this direction.

We therefore recommend the adoption of the following rules on this subject, and that they be assigned a prominent place in our Conference Minutes from year to year:

Item 1. That the Quarterly Conference Committees make their estimates as formerly; and, without any regard to the time of service in the ministry, report the amount necessary for a comfortable support.

Item 2. The superannuated ministers of the North Indiana Conference shall be divided into four classes, and their claims shall be upon the following basis:

The First Class shall comprise all who have traveled two effective years after admission to full membership in an Annual Conference.

The Second Class, all who have thus traveled in the effective ranks six years after full membership.

The Third Class, all who have been effective nine years after full membership.

The Fourth Class, all who have been effective for twelve years after full membership.

In ascertaining the class to which a claimant belongs, all the years of effective service shall be counted, whether consecutive or not.

The First Class may be claimants for not exceeding five years. The Second Class may be claimants for not exceeding ten years—no limit being assigned for the Third and Fourth Classes. Nevertheless, should there be a special case apparent to the Stewards of the Conference and Disbursing Committee, in the First or Second Classes, who should be continued on the list of beneficiaries, they shall recommend to the Conference their continuance, and by a three-fourth majority of the Conference present and voting on said recommendation, they may be continued claimants as long as recommended and approved as above by the Conference.

The First Class shall have as a basis of distribution, one-fourth; the Second Class, one-half; the Third Class, three-fourths; and the Fourth Class the whole of the amount estimated as necessary for a support. A claim of say $400 shall, under this rule, be reduced for the First Class to $100; for the Second Class, to $200; for the Third Class, to $300—no reduction being made for the Fourth Class. The per centage of payments shall be upon the basis of the reduced claims. The claims of the widows and children of deceased members of the North Indiana Conference shall be the same as that of the husband and father would be if living, provided they be persons of good moral character.

Item 3. We recommend that in case the above plan of distribution shall be adopted, all the moneys for Conference claimants be aggregated into one sum, and used for the benefit of all claimants, without naming the sources from which each claimant is allowed his dividend.

Item 4. We also recommend that the Conference Secretary be instructed to prepare a suitable blank to be filled by claimants, showing year by year the relation he sustained to the Conference—whether effective, supernumerary or superannuated.

Item 5. We further recommend that the Constitution of the Preachers' Aid Society of this Conference be amended in due time so as to conform it to the provisions of this report by striking out Article VIII, and substituting in the place thereof the second item of this report, and that the new law shall go into effect at once.

Book Concern Accounts.

Your Committee on Book Concern Accounts beg leave to report that they have carefully canvassed the claims against members of this Conference, and have to report that we find there are a number of the brethren who fail to observe the resolutions of the General Conference requiring annual payment; and we hereby request the agents to enforce the rule to disallow credit to the members in default.

Judicial Reports.

Your committee, to whom was referred the case of Rev. J. G. Slusser, would report that they have investigated the charges and specifications and find that the first charge of immorality was not sustained. That the second charge of imprudent and unministerial conduct was sustained, and that the penalty be private reproof, administered by Bishop Bowman.

On motion, the second bill of charges was referred back to the Conference, with the recommendation that it be referred to the Presiding Elder of the Goshen District for investigation.

Accounts of Presiding Elders.

Your committee, appointed to audit the accounts of the Presiding Elders for Quarterly Conference blanks for the year ending April, 1883, submit the following report:

January 6, bill of N. H. Phillips for the entire work, 21,500 blanks, 1,215 Quarterly Conference Minutes	$80 00
Paid N. H. Phillips, by M. H. Mendenhall	65 00
Paid N. H. Phillips, by Y. B. Meredith	15 00
Total	$80 00

We find a balance of $7.30 in the hands of M. H. Mendenhall, which we recommend be retained far like use in the future.

The committee find the account correct.

C. E. DISBRO, Committee.

Accounts of Secretary.

Your committee, appointed to audit the accounts of C. G. Hudson, as Secretary of North Indiana Conference, has carefully examined his accounts and vouchers, and found them to be correct. IN MEMORIAM.

NOTE.—The following list includes all the deceased members of the North Indiana Conference since the division of the north half of the State into two Conferences—the North Indiana, and the North-West Indiana—in 1852.

The roll is made up from the printed minutes.

It is greatly to be regretted that greater care has not been observed in the preparation of the Memoirs, several of which fail even to furnish the items necessary to fill the columns below.

Deceased Members of the North Indiana Conference.

"They rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

"There is no death! What seems so is transition;
This life of mortal breath
Is but a suburb of the life elysian
Whose portals we call death."

MEMOIRS.

Rev. Samuel Neal Campbell.

At our last session, at Muncie, as we wondered who of our number would be gone to his reward when next the Conference roll should be called, we little thought it would be Bro. Campbell—hearty and vigorous. He bade fair for many years of a green old age, and to outlast many younger men. To-day we are all conscious of a lack; there is a break in our ranks which every spirit feels, and which only his smiling face and cheerful voice could supply.

We are sad, although we know it is well with him. With unfeigned sorrow we perform the duty of offering a few words, which will faintly express our feelings, and partially do justice to him whom we all loved, and whose true and well-tried friendship made him dear to every one.

Samuel Neal Campbell was born in Green county, Ohio, May 7, 1816, and died suddenly in Noblesville, September 28, 1882, aged sixty-six years, three months and twenty-one days. He was one of a large family of children, who were left fatherless at an early age. His widowed mother removed, soon after his father's death, to Warren county, Indiana. Here our brother spent his early years on the farm. Although obliged to labor constantly, and struggle with all the disadvantages of poverty, yet his thirst for knowledge led him to improve every moment, and he pursued his studies in spite of every difficulty. He studied English grammar while following the plow. The same perseverance and determination of purpose marked him all his life, and enabled him to obtain an excellent education, and made him a man of superior attainments. He began the study of Greek, not eighty years old, indeed, as Cato, but yet after he was forty years of age, in order to better fit himself for the duties of the ministry.

Bro. Campbell married early. When twenty-one years old he married Miss Diana Moon. Four children were given to him by this marriage—two sons and two daughters. The daughters preceded their father to the world of spirits, but the sons yet bear the responsibilities of life. His first wife was taken from him in 1849. In 1852, he married Miss Eliza M. Dixson, who, together with a son and daughter, survive him.

He united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, in August, 1830, at a camp meeting, at Clear Spring, but did not profess conversion until two years afterward. In 1834 he received license to exhort, and so acceptable were his ministrations, that in 1837 he was licensed to preach. Feeling himself called of God to the work of the traveling ministry, he applied to the North Indiana Conference in 1847, and was received on trial, at Indianapolis. At this same session he was ordained a Local Deacon by Bishop Janes. He was received in full connection in 1848, at Logansport, and was ordained Elder by Bishop Morris, in 1851, at South Bend.

The following is the list of Bro. Campbell's appointments, in their order: Monticello, Rensselaer, Granville, Anderson, Hagerstown, Greenfield, Centerville, Winchester, Noblesville, Logansport, Peru, Warsaw, Presiding Elder of Ft. Wayne District, Wabash, Kokomo, Supernumerary one year, New Castle, Tract Agent and Conference Evangelist, Noblesville, Superannuated one year, Conference Helper, Logansport, at Market Street, and Supernumerary, with appointment at Noblesville, where he closed his course.

In the spring of 1876, he was one of the delegates to the Baltimore General Conference. He stated that he had received over two thousand into the Church on probation, and had raised some forty thousand dollars for building churches and paying church debts. He summed it all up by saying: "It seems but little that I have done, but I am thankful for even that little."

In our Conference, Bro. Campbell was a man of influence. We have missed him greatly this year. He was a close observer of all the business of the Conference; he took a profound interest in all its work, and manifested a deep and friendly concern for every one of its members. We shall never forget once when a brother was obliged to superannuate, and resolutions of sympathy were proposed, how Bro. Campbell sprang to his feet and said he was sorry five dollars' worth for the brother. He was an enthusiastic Methodist, devoted to all our connectional interests, entering heartily into all the great movements of the Church, and by his public addresses and sermons, contributed largely to the success of all the leading enterprises of the Church. He was a clear, forcible, eloquent preacher of Bible doctrines. He brought many to the Savior, some of whom are now filling the most important stations of the Church. He was an uncompromising opponent of the great sins of the age. He never feared to speak the whole truth, even in the midst of trying circumstances. He never flinched from duty, and all his utterances were backed by a noble, christian character and an untarnished reputation, against which no breath of suspicion was ever directed.

As a man he was lovable, kind, friendly and true. He gave his heart with his hand, and never did men have a better or a truer friend. His social qualities were highly developed. He possessed a bright and sparkling wit, full of candor and charity, which he never used to wound or sting. As a citizen he was spirited, ever anxious for the commonwealth and the common weal. He was an uncompromising opponent to slavery, and in the times of the civil war, he upheld the government by his fearless utterances in times and places where it was done with peril. He was a member of the old Whig party, and participated in the first series of meetings which inaugurated the Republican party. He acted up to his standard of duty, believing that the christian should carry religion and politics hand in hand. In his family he was ever kind, tender, affectionate, loving, providing well for his own household, and making his home a true home, with Christ at the head.

At our last session, he appeared to be in his usual health, and we little suspected, and he himself hardly realized, the insidious approach of the heart disease which was so suddenly to transfer him to the many mansions. However, in the last few months of his stay here, he began to realize that his time was short, and that his work was done. He spoke some times that his work was done, that he was glad that he had spent his life as he had; that he had never wronged any to the value of a farthing, and if he had, he would restore him fourfold. The last time that he attended church services, in Noblesville, he had difficulty in reaching the church. A few days before his death, he went to Winchester to attend a reunion, and preached on the Sabbath of September 26th, with great unction and power. Monday he returned home. Tuesday he had some difficulty in breathing for a short time. Wednesday he seemed to be well; was in the streets; conversed with friends, and retired to rest as usual. A little past midnight he awoke and roused his wife, remarking, "I am feeling bad." Drink was offered him, but he said that he could not swallow. A physician was hastily summoned, but when he arrived he was unconscious, and in a few minutes, without a groan, his spirit was loosed and he had gone to "be with Christ, which is far better."

Thus did the Master take to Himself His faithful servant, after a church membership of fifty-two years, and a ministerial record of over forty-two years, closed up with an eloquent sermon. September 30th, into this church his brethren tenderly bore his dust, pronounced their eulogies, and then carried away all that was mortal of Samuel Neal Campbell to peacefully slumber until the resurrection morning.

His wife and children have lost a husband and father, the best and the kindest, and their loss is irreparable, however great may be his gain. The North Indiana Conference has lost one of its best and most faithful members. The young men have lost a friend and counsellor, and the old men a brother. We cherish the memory of a good and kindly life, the memory of one whose departure makes life less dear, and heaven nearer.

"In the quiet joy of kindly trust,
We bid each parting saint a brief farewell;
Weeping, yet smiling, we commit their dust
To the safe keeping of the silent cell.

"Softly within that peaceful resting place
We lay their wearied limbs, and bid the clay
To press lightly on them, till the night be past.
And the far east give note of coming day.

"The day of reappearing! How it speeds!
He who is true and faithful speaks the word.
Then shall we ever be with those we love;
Then shall we be forever with the Lord.

"The shout is heard—the archangel's voice goes forth;
The trumpet sounds, the dead awake and sing;
The living put on glory; one glad band,
They hasten up to meet their coming King.

"Short death and darkness! Endless life and light!
Short dimming, endless shining in yon sphere.
Where all is incorruptible and pure,
The joy without the pain; the smiling without the tear."

Rev. Eli Rammel.

Eli Rammel was born in Salem county, New Jersey, on the twenty-second of September, 1816, and died in Labette county, Kansas, October 26, 1882, aged sixty-six years, one month and four days.

When Bro. Rammel was one year old, his parents removed from New Jersey to Franklin county, Indiana, where they remained until he was fourteen years old, when they moved to Danville, where he resided until he was thirty-four years of age. He became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, when he was only nineteen, but was not satisfied with his experience until two years afterward, when he found peace. This was in 1837. He entered heartily into all the work of the church, and such were his gifts, grace and usefulness, that he was licensed to preach, in 1847, by Richard Hargrave, Presiding Elder. For the three years that he sustained this relation, his labors and experience were such as to assure both the Church and himself that he was called to the ministry as a life work. He was received on trial in the North Indiana Conference, in 1850 at the session at Cambridge City. He was ordained Deacon, in 1852, by Bishop Baker, and Elder, in 1855, at Goshen, by Bishop Scott.

For nearly twenty-nine years he was actively employed in the work of the ministry, with a year's exception. His appointments were as follows: Greenfield, Anderson, Middletown, Pendleton, Fishersburgh, Carmel, Fortville, Jonesboro, Alexandria, Indianapolis Circuit, Supernumerary for a year and a half, Alexandria, Muncie Circuit, Albany, Williamsburg, Boxley, Westfield. In 1879 he was obliged to superannuate on account of partial blindness, in which noble and honorable relation he remained until his death.

Bro. Rammel was married in 1840 to Miss Cassa A. Cash, who is his widow to-day, after journeying with him for forty-two years. Of ten children which were given to them, five are already in the better world, while nearly all the remainder are following in the footsteps of their father.

Shortly after our brother was granted a superannuated relation, he removed to Kansas, and settled on a farm, in Labette county, about five miles of Coffeyville. He was still very active in the work of the Master, and took a deep interest in all the affairs of the Church. He preached frequently, and his general health being good, he was always willing to work, almost to the close. The last winter of his life he conducted a series of meetings, which resulted in great good.

He was taken sick about the first of October. During his short illness he was able to converse but very little. He never murmured, but rather displayed a constant spirit of resignation, and the christian heroism of the faithful soldier. He said that he did not think he would ever recover, but the way was clear and he was willing to go. The last week of his life he could not speak, but by signs he made known that he had no fears as he entered the other world.

Bro. Rammel was always an earnest, faithful preacher, full of power and of the Holy Ghost. His qualities as a husband and father were such as make his memory doubly precious to his surviving family. He has left behind him a good record that does him honor, and his works that "do follow him" will be abundant witnesses in his favor throughout eternity. His memory lingers among us like a sweet perfume. It remains for us to close up the ranks, and carry on the battle as bravely as did he, until we join him where he sits "with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, in the kingdom of God."

Rev. James H. Hutchison.

That kind and gentle angel, Death, has been sent frequently to the North Indiana Conference, this year, and each time his message that the Father had need of the presence of his beloved, has been brought to some one of the fathers; to some one whom we loved, and whom we would have kept with us longer to receive our reverent regard and to benefit us with their counsels; and the last who has been conveyed from earth to glory, is our dear Bro. Hutchison.

Rev. James Hearst Hutchison was born November 10, 1810, in Columbia county, Penn., and died of cancer of the stomach in the city of Elkhart, January 15, 1883, aged 72 years, 2 months and 5 days.

Until he was 24 years old he lived in Pennsylvania. Of the pursuits of his youth we have not been able to learn. He was converted in Lewisburgh, Pa., in December, 1827, and at the same time he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. January 12, 1832, he was married to Miss Matilda Musser, in Lewisburgh. By this marriage he had 7 sons and 2 daughters. In 1834 they removed to the State of Ohio, and lived for a time at Mt. Vernon and afterwards at Bucyrus. Here he was a prominent citizen, and was honored with an election to the post of mayor.

While residing in Ohio he was licensed to preach in 1844, and for one year was a supply at Mt. Gilead, in the North Ohio Conference. In 1850 he was ordained a local deacon by Bishop Morris. In a few years he was bereaved of his wife by her death. In 1850 he was married to Lavinia Heater, in Bucyrus, who gave him two daughters, neither of whom are living. Soon afterward he removed to Kendallville, Indiana, where death soon again visited him and again removed his consort.

Although he was of an age when now we think a man is too old to be admitted to the Conference, yet so strong was his call that he concluded to devote himself entirely to the work of the ministry. He traveled Orland circuit as a supply during the year 1853, and was received on trial in the North Indiana Conference in 1854, at the session at Peru. On entering the Conference he was married to Miss Mary M. Kiblinger, of Goshen, who has been with him during all his ministry. To this marriage two children were given, who, with their mother, survive the husband and father.

Bro. Hutchison's appointments were as follows: 1854–5, Angola; 1856–7, Albion; 1858, Elkhart and North Mishawaka Circuit; 1859, Elkhart Station; 1860, Spencerville; 1861–2, Bluffton Circuit; 1863, North Manchester; 1864-5, Columbia City; 1866–7, La Grange Circuit; 1869–70, Wolcottville; 1871, Ligonier. In 1872 he superannuated on account of impaired health, and settled in Elkhart.

Bro. Hutchison was an excellent preacher, plain, practical and full of power. He took great enjoyment in proclaiming the gospel, and during his last years was ever ready to assist in the public services or fill any vacancy. Under all circumstances and in all places, he took great delight in witnessing for Christ, and bearing testimony to his own personal religious enjoyment. He was one of those grand superannuates, sweet and loving in temper, ever willing to embrace every opportunity of usefulness, and realizing with joy that he could do as good service to stand and wait, as those who ran. He was a man of earnest convictions; outspoken and ready to defend his opinions, but never bitter toward those who might differ with him, and always kind and charitable toward all. He was a man of more than ordinary physical power and mental vivacity. He was ever bright, sunny and cheerful, and made friends of all. He was industrious and enterprising, and his name was always found among those who were anxious for the public welfare. His voice was not silent in any of the great reforms of the day.

In business he was diligent. He was public spirited, and so great was the trust reposed in him by his fellow-citizens, that he was made marshal of the city, and served as justice of the peace for two terms, holding that office at the time of his death. His public duties were always discharged with greatest fidelity and honesty, and in him every one had all confidence. He endeared himself to all his brethren, and though he was comparatively a stranger to the younger members of the Conference, yet all who knew him loved him.

His final sickness was protracted and severe. The nature of his disease was such that it was very painful, but he bore all his sufferings with christian fortitude and resignation. Although it was in such a painful way that the cords of his earthly tabernacle were loosed one by one; yet Divine grace enabled him to say, "Thy will be done," and he realized that all things shall work together for good to them that love God. Death found him ready and triumphant.

His funeral was one of the largest ever held in the city of Elkhart, and crowded the largest church in the town. His pastor, with the aid of the Knights of the Temple, laid away his dust in hope of a joyful resurrection.

"Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace."

dollars in like manner; and such persons shall be entitled to participate in all the proceedings of the Society while members. Notes bearing annual interest and payable within five years may be received from life members or life patrons. Centenary contributions, when of sufficient amount, shall constitute life members or life patrons.

These officers shall be elected at the annual meetings of the Society, and they shall hold their offices till the close of the term of the annual Conference next ensuing, or till successors are elected.

The Treasurer shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond and security in the penal sum of fifteen thousand dollars, which may at any time be increased in the discretion of the Board; said bond to be approved by the Board and filed with the Secretary.

The Board shall have power to make by-laws not inconsistent with this constitution, for their own government and that of the Society; and five members shall constitute a quorum.

Vacancies occurring in any office in the interim of Conference, by death, resignation or otherwise, may be filled by the Board.

ARTICLE V.

The annual meeting of the Board shall be in the city of Muncie, within thirty days next preceding the session of the annual Conference, and special meetings of the Board may be called by the President, or any two members thereof, upon reasonable personal notice.

The annual meeting of the Society shall be held in regular Conference session, upon the second day of the session, at 10 o'clock A. M., the President of the Conference presiding, at which time the Society shall elect officers for the ensuing year, and the Board shall present a full and detailed report of the condition of the Society, its receipts and expenditures, with all other matters that may be necessary to a full understanding of its doings by the members.

Meetings of the Society may be called by the President, or any two members of the Board, twenty days notice having been given in the Church Journal having the largest circulation in the Conference.

ARTICLE VI.

The Board shall have power to appoint an agent and fix the amount of his salary, who shall labor for the increase of the fund in such a manner as they shall direct.

ARTICLE VII.

The Board shall, at their annual meeting, appoint an Investing Committee, of three laymen, who shall reside at the city of Muncie, of whom the Treasurer shall be one, who shall have discretionary power over the investments of the Society, subject to the following restrictions:

All investments shall be made either by direct loan or by the purchase of United States bonds.

All loans shall be secured by two responsible names for amounts of two hundred dollars or less, who shall be joint drawers, and said loans shall be renewed annually, and all loans of over two hundred dollars shall be secured by mortgage on unincumbered, imperishable real estate, the cash value of which shall be at least double the amount borrowed, and the product of which exceeds the interest.

The committee shall make a full report of its doings, and of the condition of the entire fund, to the Board at their annual meeting, and the Treasurer shall at the same time present a report of the receipts and expenditures during the current year, and of the amount on hand; and the Board shall thereupon fix the amount to be applied to the objects of the Society for the Conference year then closing, and shall order accordingly, which amount the Treasurer shall be authorized to pay over to the Disbursing Committee. Contingent expenses shall be paid by the Treasurer upon the order of the Board, and no sums shall be paid out by him except as herein directed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The proceeds of the fund shall be applied to the aid of the following classes of persons, and under the following limitations and restrictions:

The superannuated ministers of the North Indiana Conference shall be divided into four classes, and their claims shall be upon the following basis:

The First Class shall comprise all who have traveled two effective years after admission to full membership in an Annual Conference.

The Second Class, all who have traveled in the effective ranks six years after full membership.

The Third Class, all who have been effective nine years after full membership.

The Fourth Class, all who have been effective for twelve years after full membership.

In ascertaining the class to which a claimant belongs, all the years of effective service shall be counted whether consecutive or not.

The First Class may be claimants for not exceeding five years.

The Second Class may be claimants for not exceeding ten years,—no limit being assigned for the Third and Fourth Classes.

Nevertheless, should there be a special case, apparent to the Stewards of the Conference and Disbursing Committee, in the First or Second Class, who should be continued on the list of beneficiaries, they shall recommend to the Conference their continuance, and by a three-fourths majority of the Conference present and voting on said recommendation, they may be continued claimants, as long as recommended and approved as above by the Conference.

The First Class shall have as a basis of distribution, one-fourth; the Second Class, one-half; the Third Class, three-fourths; and the Fourth Class, the whole of the amount estimated as necessary for a support. A claim of say $400, shall, under this rule, be reduced for the First Class to $100; for the Second Class, to $200; for the Third Class, to $300—no reduction being made for the Fourth Class. The per centage of payments shall be upon the basis of the reduced claims. The claims of the widows and children of deceased members of the North Indiana Conference shall be the same as that of the husband and father would be if living, provided, they be persons of good moral character.

ARTICLE IX.

The Board shall, during the session of each Annual Conference, appoint a Disbursing Committee to serve to the close of the ensuing Conference. Said committee shall consist of three members of the Conference, who may be the Stewards, and of two laymen.

This committee shall, in the interim and during the session of the Conference, obtain all practical information as to the condition and necessities of claimants on the fund, and shall, upon such information, recommend appropriations to the full aggregate amount allowed by the Board for distribution, which recommendation shall be submitted to the Conference for approval; provided, that all changes of amounts allowed by the committee, and all claims originated by the Conference, shall require a two-thirds vote of the members present.

ARTICLE X.

Any note executed to the Society by a member of the Conference, and remaining unpaid, shall be deducted from an allowance made to him, his widow, or children; but neither the Society nor the Conference shall have power to apply the amounts so appropriated to the payment of any other claim.

ARTICLE XI.

This constitution may be altered or amended at an annual meeting of the Society, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, such alteration or amendment having been first recommended by a majority of all the members of the Board.

ARTICLE XII.

The corporate seal of this Society shall be a metallic impression, with the following words and letters, to-wit: "THE PREACHERS' AID SOC. N. IND. CONF. M. E. CHURCH."

General Statistics.

Dear Brethren:

These tables have been carefully proved by professional accountants, and the footings are correct. It is greatly to be regretted that the same items in tables Nos. 1 and 2 do not agree in all the Districts, and consequently the grand totals are not the same. It is impossible to make them agree with the reports that were made.

Will you, brethren, next year take great pains to see that in your reports the same items in Nos. 1 and 2 agree? Please observe that in table No. 2, columns 2–7 must equal column 1, and column 7 must be the same as the first column in No. 1. Also, that column 14 in table No. 2 must be the same as the second column in table No. 1. Please take the pains to add them up and make them prove.

The reports of the Benevolent Collections should agree with the reports made by the several Treasurers of these funds. The tables will be compared and corrected by the reports of the Treasurers. A little care and thought will obviate all these errors and make both tables agree in all points.

C. G. Hudson, Secretary.
